RESIDENTIAL RECYCLING GUIDE

PAPER That CAN Be Recycled

- Newspaper & Inserts
- Magazines & Catalogs
- Junk Mail & Envelopes
- Telephone Books
- Chipboard Boxes
  - -Cereal and cracker boxes with the inside packaging removed.

PAPER That CAN'T Be Recycled

- Pizza boxes and any other paper that has food, paint, oil, or other contaminants on it goes in the trash.

- Corrugated Cardboard
  - -The cardboard with the ripple in the middle cannot be recycled at curbside. Drop-off centers will accept corrugated for recycling.

How To Recycle PAPER

- Put all paper in brown paper bags and place in Recycling Bin.

METAL That CAN Be Recycled

- Aluminum Beverage Cans
- Steel and Tin Beverage Cans
- Any Can that Contained Food

METAL That CAN'T Be Recycled

- Aluminum Foil & Food Trays
- Wire Coat Hangers
- Window Blinds
- Paint Cans
- Pots & Pans
- Pressed or Forged Steel or Cast Iron
  - Local Scrap Dealers may Recycle these Items.

How To Recycle METAL Cans

- Remove the tops or push them into the can, rinse, and throw them in your recycling bin - no need to remove the labels.

GLASS That CAN Be Recycled

- All colors - green, clear, brown
- All bottles that contained pourable liquids
- All jars that contained food products

GLASS That CAN'T Be Recycled

- Window Glass
- Ceramics/Coffee Mugs
- Crystal and Mirrors
- Light Bulbs & Florescent Tubes

How To Recycle GLASS

- Remove and discard lids, rinse food out of containers and put them in your recycling bin - no need to remove the labels.

PLASTIC That CAN Be Recycled

- PETE Plastic - #1 (clear or opaque)
  - -Water jugs & bottles
  - -Soda & juice bottles
  - -Milk jugs

- HDPE Plastic - #2 (white or colored)
  - -Orange juice jugs
  - -Antifreeze & motor oil containers
  - -Detergent & bleach containers

PLASTIC That CAN'T Be Recycled

- Any Number Other Than #1 or #2
  - -No styrofoam cups or packaging
  - -No clear formed food trays
  - -No flower pots or garden flats
  - -No plastic bags or stretch wrap

How To Recycle PLASTIC

- Remove all lids, rinse container, and put in the bin with the glass and metal - no need to remove the labels.

Recycling is EASY and helps the Environment as well as the Township.