Supervisor Shelly made a request that the Board consider changing the time of the work session to the evening, noting that he did a survey of Montgomery County municipalities and we were the only municipality to hold our meetings in the morning. Supervisor Canavan said that he felt that the morning meetings gave residents the opportunity to attend a meeting either in the morning or in the evening at our regular Board meeting. Supervisor Shelly asked if the Board would consider allowing participants who zoom into the meeting the opportunity to interact with the Board. Supervisor Canavan said that the board might want to discuss allowing interaction at the work session meetings.

Chairman Bergman made a motion to approve the meeting schedule as posted. Supervisor Canavan seconded the motion. The motion passed 3 to 1 (Supervisor Shelly voting no).
